

November 2016

Voters overwhelmingly approved "Measure J," a special tax on property to help support Cordova Recreation and Park District's goal of providing safe, clean and accessible parks and facilities to the community.

July 1, 2017

The special tax assessment appeared on the 2017/2018 property tax bill. The tax rate for single family homes is roughly $50.00 annually. CRPD received the first assessment in late January 2018.

November 9, 2017

Community Outreach Meeting held at Neil Orchard Senior Activities Center. Community members learned what types of projects can be funded by Measure J had the opportunity to share their opinion, needs and preferences.

January 2018

First funding payment for Measure J received by Cordova Recreation and Park District.

Mid-2018

Measure J is now referred to as "My Parks Enhancement Fund: Investments for Better Parks." Look for signs around the Cordova Recreation and Park District designating projects as My Parks Enhancement Fund Projects.