Cordova Recreation & Park District Announces Opening of Sparrow Park

[Rancho Cordova, CA., May 24, 2021] – Earlier today, the Cordova Recreation & Park District (District) celebrated the opening of Sparrow Park, a new neighborhood park in Rancho Cordova. Neighborhood parks are vital outdoor spaces for local residents. As exemplified over the past year, the need for outdoor public space is crucial to people’s health and wellness.

Sparrow Park is the result of a team effort with two years of planning, designing and careful construction. The Sparrow Park team consisted of District staff, Olympic Land Construction, SBM, Inc., Premier Homes, the Design Team at VanderToolen Associates and the District’s supportive Board of Directors.

Sparrow Park offers an open turf area that becomes a community back yard, a shaded picnic area that will host countless neighborhood parties and gatherings, and a well-designed playground with swings, climbers, spinners and other activities to challenge kids and help them grow.

The District is excited to see the community enjoy and make wonderful memories at this neighborhood park. Now more than ever, Parks Make Life Better![®] Visit Sparrow Park at 11938 Montron Way, Rancho Cordova.
